The Upscale Sunscape Dorado Pacifico Ixtapa which is part of the "World of Hyatt Inclusive Collection" is an all-inclusive resort that offers sweeping views of the Pacific Ocean. With a large pool, four full restaurants, a poolside snack bar, a coffee shop, a sprawling beach, beach bar, swim up bar, and a fine spa. There is plenty here to keep guests occupied and the town's main tours area is only five minutes away on foot. The bright and modern rooms are spacious and include minibars and private balconies with partial and full sea views.

Located only four miles apart, Ixtapa and Zihuatanejo combine to deliver the best of both worlds! Zihuatanejo is a picturesque fishing village nestled within a small jewel-like bay containing four beautiful beaches, a variety of small hotels and a great selection of restaurants from small family-owned thatch-roofed eateries to exotic gourmet dining. Ixtapa is a state-of-the-art tourist facility boasting a host of large and medium sized hotels, dozens of restaurants, discos, live entertainment, and shopping. Despite their differences, Ixtapa and Zihuatanejo do share some similarities - most notably an ideal climate and sixteen miles of glorious golden beaches!

Besides beaching it, there are numerous other activities for both the adventurous and the less energetic. You can enjoy all the water sports....ski, parachute ride, snorkel, jet-ski, ride the banana boat, water tricycle, sail board, surf and much more. For something really exciting, treat yourself to an adventure of a life time and experience catching Sailfish and Marlin or any of the other many species that are abundant in these waters. For underwater fans, there is scuba diving with more than 30 world-class sites around. If golf is your sport, there are two excellent courses in the area.
